Dear Mr. Burleigh:

I've had a very pleasant trip of a week to London and St. Thomas & there I met a Mrs. ~~Mr~~ Leslie Gray - C/o Silverwoods Dairies' Office, London, who is much interested in the genealogical project: has done a great deal himself and Zantz is his present hunt. He has gone to Penn. several times and Alanda knows him. I think you would find him of value if he would join.

I found my grandfather's school (Talbot Seminary) still standing on a different site than when he first taught classics there in 1824.

I am still hunting my Talbot settler ancestor in Raleigh Co.

Mr. Isaac Gill, Greenwich

The line of Randals who came from S.T. to London were later known as Reynolds. so I looked all thro' London Dp. to try to find a Warren Reynolds but so far fruitlessly.

Stephen Randal in 1827 was a witness of a wedding in St. Dns. between a James Reynolds and Almira Wells. both of Westminster. My gt. uncle Benj. Randal d. in 1914 in Komoka near Ilderton. and William and Alanson (Lawson) Randal are here today. but all wives are down. and I shall have to write. So I did not get very far. West Lorne and Iona yield Rev. Lewis Randall a Baptist Minister. dying about 1894 if I remember. The Talbot settler Israel was in Iona early.

Did you ever look up the Burley family in Bolton. One which is allied to Randall? I have some notes if you should want them. (I refrain from any facetious remarks such as we might have in conversation - writing is so 'chancy'.)

Kingston, Ont. K7L 5E3

Dear Dr. Burleigh:

Thank you for your letter of July 28 and the very interesting copy of the booklet on Jean Richard and his descendents. I have studied it thoroughly.

I feel fairly certain that my great-grandmother, Ellen Richards (1834-1912), who married Matthew Knox (1813-1914) was of this Richards family, but I do not yet know here she "hooks on." My father, Matthew A. Reynolds (age 90), living at Weyburn, Saskatchewan, says her parents lived in Picton -- but does not know her father's name. She had a brother, John Richards, and five isters: Mary Jane (Sing), Kate (Curry), Rhoda (Hart), Emeline (Dunbar), Clara (Fralick). There were at least two half-brothers also: George and Stephen Cunningham.

My father's cousin in Norwood, Ontario, Mrs. Edith (~~Knox~~) McConnell, remembers her grandmother Ellen very well, and even has a picture of Ellen's father, but cannot recall his name.

I suspect Ellen Richards was the daughter of John Jr. (bapt'd Nov. 7, 1811). I would like to establish that fact and my quest would be complete.

Should you be able to help me learn Ellen's connection I would be very grateful to you. I shall take a second copy of your booklet and make know the booklet to Knox other relatives which includes three brothers and two sisters.

If you would be interested I would also send you a copy of the Reynolds Family tree. My great-great grandfather, Jesse L. Reynolds (1796-1867) and his wife Mary (Wees) (1799-1870) came to the Norwood district from Murray Township in Northumberland County in 1833. I also have the Knox family tree since they came to Canada from Ireland about 1820.

I hope I may hear from you again.

Sincerely,

J. Kirk Reynolds

Dear Dr. Burleigh:

Thank you for your booklet and letter of September 7.

I shall be willing to send you $10 if you are able to learn how I am related to the Jean Richard of your booklet. Judging from names and ages I suspect my great-grandmother Ellen (Richards) Knox, and her brother John, who my father (now living at Weyburn, Saskatchewan; age 91) knew as "Uncle Johnny Richards", were children of John Richards Jr. (Page 18 C.1) I have picture of Uncle Johnny Richards, and Mrs. Edith McConnell of Norwood, Ontario, has other pictures of her grandparents. Previously I knew of the U.E.L. relationship and the French relationship, and more recently I have learned of the Indian relationship which was an interesting surprise.

As for the Reynoldses, Jesse L. Reynolds and his wife Mary (Wees) Reynolds came to the Norwood, Ontario, district in 1833 from Murray Township in Northumberland County. I have visited their graves in Norwood cemetery. I have a fairly complete family tree of the Reynoldees since that time with some information about the Reynoldses before that time.

I shall be very glad to have you fill me in further on the Richards connection.

J. C. Reynolds Appointed Frontenac County Judge

Is Named to Succeed Late Judge H. A. Lavell — Called to Ontario Bar in 1922

1939

OTTAWA, Jan. 16 — (CP) —John Clifford Reynolds, K.C., has been appointed judge of Frontenac County, succeeding H. A. Lavell, who died last November, Justice Minister Lapointe announced today.

The newly appointed judge was born in Verona, Frontenac County, the son of the late William Howard Reynolds and Mrs. Reynolds, who is now living in Kingston. He was educated in the schools of the county and the city and graduated from Queen's University with the degree bachelor of arts in 1919. He attended Osgoode Hall from 1919 till 1922, when he was called to the bar of the Province of Ontario. He practised in Toronto till 1924, when he came to Kingston and set up in practice here. In the year 1928 he became a partner in the firm of King and Reynolds, where he has carried on his legal business up till the present.

Mr. Reynolds has always taken a keen interest in the civic life of Kingston and he served as mayor of the city in 1935, climaxing six years of service as an alderman for Rideau Ward. In the year 1937 he was president of the Kingston Chamber of Commerce.

He has been secretary of the Kingston Liberal Association for the past ten years; he has been a member of the Kingston Rotary Club since coming to Kingston to practise law and has held office in the club; he is a past president of the Kingston Tennis Club.

Judge Reynolds is married and has one son. The family resides at 184 Victoria Street.

Brock, Ontario, William and King streets are a disgrace to the city. In all my travels I have never seen such a sight as leaving street railway tracks down after the cars have ceased to run.

At the present time relief and unemployment is costing the city considerable money and a start should be made at once so that the work can be finished before the heavy tourist traffic starts. This would practically relieve the city of relief costs. Any man that would not work would be put off relief.

There would also be a lot of salvage from the job. The stones could be put through the crusher and used for concrete by the Works Department when laying new pavements. Scrap iron is now a good price and the rails would bring in considerable money.

I trust that I may have the cooperation of the mayor and aldermen in this connection.

Please let us have every one behind this effort to have Princess Street put on a dignified basis.

WARD BOUNDARIES

To the Editor of
The Whig-Standard:

Sir—I am much surprised to find that the mayor and aldermen authorized an expenditure of $200 for the change in the ward areas.

Mr. H. Dick is quite a competent engineer and the new clerk-treasurer, Mr. Wyatt, has lots of ability and if Mr. T. A. Kidd and myself had been added to this committee we could have done the job and saved the money.

County Council To Dispense with Leisurely Ways

Possible New Year's resolutions were reflected in inaugural proceedings at Frontenac County Council yesterday afternoon, as councillors strongly endorsed suggestions from reeves that the leisurely method of dealing with their business be dispensed with.

Reeve H. J. Thomson of Oso suggested that proceedings could be speeded up by committees holding meetings early in the sessions, instead of delaying their meetings until Thursday or Friday.

Others at the board were quick to support Mr. Thomson's suggestions. Warden J. P. O'Shea was ready to take up the challenge and remind council that he expected them to be on time, ready to discuss business and prepared to adhere to rules and regulations.

"I would like councillors to confine their remarks to two speeches on any motion," suggested the warden. "Some councillors talk too much, others don't talk enough."

Reeve M. G. Johnston of Portsmouth thought council should get the business cleared up early in the session so more discussion could be revived around the board. "We do very little the first three days. Then we finish up with gusto on the last day," he remarked. Mr. Johnston also thought that the council should rise when the warden came into the chambers to take his seat.

Council should assemble when the bell is first sounded was the opinion expressed by others. Customarily the warden is seated in his chair long before council arrives, and it is necessary to ring the bell, to summon them to sessions for as long as fifteen or twenty minutes.

GODFREY—Edmund Reynolds, 80, of Piccadilly who passed away recently at his home after an illness of five weeks was born in the Township of Portland near Verona on June 14, 1869, eldest son of the late Ira and Mary Jane Reynolds. His wife, the former Laura Scales, predeceased him 19 years ago and a daughter, Wilhelmine, in 1919 and another daughter, Ethel, in 1934. All his life was spent in this vicinity.

The funeral was held on Nov. 10 at two o'clock from the family residence to Verona Free Methodis Church where service was in charge of Rev. J. Casement, Rev. W. March, assisted by Rev. W. Gregory, a wife friend of the deceased.

Interment took place in Verona cemetery. Pall-bearers were six grandsons, Laverne, Eurban, Percy and Calvin Reynolds, Austin Goodberry and James Marley. Flower bearers were four granddaughters, Mrs. J. Marley, Mrs. E. Meeks, Mrs. A. Wilson and Miss Grace Goodberry.

Besides his three sons, Terrence A. of Kingston, Garnet W. of Bellrock and Carman W. of Piccadilly he is survived by a sister, Mrs. Thomas Flake (Clara) of 2172 Rase street, Regina, Sask. There are twenty-five grandchildren and ten great-grandchildren.

Relatives who attended the funeral from distant points were from Watertown, NY, Wolfe Island, Kingtson, Sydenham, Westbrooke, Harrowsmith and Bellrock.

Frontenac County Jurist J. C. Reynolds Dies in KGH

Judge John Clifford Reynolds, 59, judge of Frontenac County since 1939 and a former mayor of Kingston, died of a heart attack in Kingston General Hospital this morning only a few hours after being admitted.

He had suffered an earlier attack this summer and was hospitalized for about a month, spending another two months recuperating at his home, 184 Victoria street. He continued to carry out his duties and was at his office yesterday.

Long known and respected by his legal colleagues and others, Judge Reynolds earned the tribute of these people both from his administration of justice and interest in their welfare.

death of Judge Reynolds, Magistrate James B. Garvin this morning said:

"I have just learned with deep regret of the decease of His Honor, Judge John Clifford Reynolds. For nearly 20 years I have been associated with Judge Reynolds as a member of the Board of Police Commissioners and desire to pay tribute to his careful consideration in the administration of justice in the City of Kingston and his concern for the rights of citizens generally.

"During these 20 years there has been the most amiable feelings and agreement on practically every matter which came before the Board of Commissioners of Police for the City of Kingston and his wise counsel as a member of the Board of Police Commissioners will be greatly missed.

"In his capacity as judge of County Court of the County of Frontenac Judge Reynolds has fulfilled same with great distinction and dignity.

"To his wife and son the most sincere regrets are extended."

Judge Reynolds was born in Verona in 1898, the son of the late William Howard Reynolds and Mary Buchanan, and attended public schools in Verona and Kingston.

He attended Kingston Collegiate Institute and Queen's University, graduating in 1919 with the degree of Bachelor of Arts.

He studied law at Osgoode Hall in Toronto, graduated in 1922 and worked in law offices in Toronto for the next two years.

Returning to Kingston in 1924 he opened an office of his own and four years later went into partnership with Francis King, QC, remaining in this partnership until his appointment as judge of Frontenac County in 1939.

He was active in municipal and political affairs and was mayor of Kingston in 1935. Prior to his election he served as an alderman on City Council for six years.

He was a member of the Kingston Liberal Association prior to his appointment as judge and served as secretary of the association for several years.

In addition, he was a member of the Kingston Rotary Club from 1925 until 1939 and of the Chamber of Commerce for a number of years, holding the office of president of the chamber in 1936.

He was a life member of the Royal Edward Masonic Lodge and the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite, a member of the board of governors of Kingston General Hospital, the advisory board of the YMCA, the Cataraqui Golf and Country Club and Sydenham Street United Church.

While the duties of his office kept him very busy, Judge Reynolds managed to find time for recreation in golf and fishing.

He is survived by his wife, Hester Margaret, one son, William Howard, both of Kingston, one brother, Eggerton Howard, Brantford, and one grandchild. He was predeceased by one brother, Dr. W. R. Reynolds, 11 years ago. Funeral arrangements are still pending.

ritory. He said the royal army had been ordered to fight back. This was the first indication that official Moroccan forces might become involved alongside the irregulars.

The Spanish foreign ministry in Madrid denied "any aggression against Moroccan territory." Spanish troops, planes and paratroopers have been sent to Ifni and Spanish Sahara, south of Morocco.

Moroccan nationalists say 50 Spanish troops have been killed and several small towns in the enclave captured. Madrid says five of its soldiers have been killed and attacks repulsed.

Gordon Says All-out Bid Made on CNS

HALIFAX (CP)—Donald Gordon, president of Canadian National (West Indies) Steamships, says "every effort" is being made to restore the Caribbean service of the strikebound CNS fleet at an early date.

He announced his determination to resume operation in a telegram sent Thursday night to the captains of the eight freighters, now tied up in Halifax harbor.

Mr. Gordon's wire was prompted by a telegram sent to him Wednesday by 73 officers, who called for an immediate restoration of service and said they are prepared to serve under Trinidad registry.

Transfer of registry from Montreal to Trinidad followed rejection by the Seafarers International Union (CLC) of a 15-per-cent wage increase offer. The SIU called the strike July 4 to back demands for a 30-per-cent increase.

To Go Up Wednesday:

U.S. Satellite Invisible To Eye, but Not Rocket

BALTIMORE (AP) — The six-inch test satellite the United States hopes to launch next Wednesday will not be visible to the naked eye, but its five-foot-long brightly painted third stage rocket will be seen.

It should provide plenty of opportunities for visual tracking as it trails the beeping satellite across the heavens.

The third stage rocket has been the most classified of all components of the 72-foot, 11-ton Vanguard launching vehicle. But the Martin company, which built and will fire the rocket, gave a peek at it in pictures today showing the tiny, four-pound test sphere mounted on the rocket.

Only the nose of the rocket, which will be completely cloaked in an apron of the bigger second stage rocket, is shown in the photograph. But it reveals a white spherical shape, about 12 to 15 inches across, on which the tiny satellite is mounted.

The picture actually shows the satellite and the business end of the Vanguard assembly as it will look to Russia's Sputniks or any other celestial objects

Winnipeg Band Can't Play at Ga

TORONTO (CP) — The Winnipeg Bomberettes Band will be watching from the stands Saturday when the 90 high-stepping girls they have accompanied all year march out onto the Winnipeg Police Band, will be permitted to march in the parade which winds through downtown Toronto Saturday morning. They arrive, with the Bomberettes, via special train today.

PHEBE ANN RANDALL 1938

Miss Phebe Ann Randall, a former Kingstonian, died at her home in Utica, N.Y., on June 8. Miss Randall lived in Kingston during the early years of her life, but for some time had been a resident of Utica.

Deceased was a daughter of the late Phebe Salsbury and Joseph Randall. In religion she was an Anglican. She is survived by two sisters. Mrs. George Humphries, with whom she made her home and Mrs. N. Stanton of Barriefield; also four brothers, Herbert of Vancouver, B.C.; Frank, William and Sidney A. of Kingston.

Death at Kingston of Father of Mrs. Card and Mr. C. Randall

Mrs. Harry B. Card and Mr. Chas. Randall, of Napanee, were bereaved last week by the death of their father, Mr. William Randall, who died on Wednesday, May 24th, at his home in Kingston, following an illness of six weeks.

The late Mr. Randall, who was in his 78th year, was born at Battersea, but had lived practically all his life at Kingston, where he was a well-known masos contractor. He retired from active work about ten years ago and had continued to live in Kingston since that time.

He is survived by his wife, two daughters, Mrs. Card, of Napanee, and Mrs. W. J. Nesbitt, of Kingston, and cne son, Charles Randall, of Napanee.

His funeral was held at his late residence on Friday afternoon, where the service was conducted by Rev. F. R. Vanderburgh, of Zion Church, of which the deceased was a member.

The pallbearers were six grandsons, Robert Nesbitt, Randall Card, Lorne Card, William Card, Walter Exley, and Walter Cowles.

Lengthier boiling makes no difference. Once the water reaches boiling point its temperature remains stationary, therefore no matter how long it is boiled it will not reach the 212 degrees necessary for the correct making of tea. As a consequence they discovered that tea would have to be made on the ground and carried aloft in vacuum bottles.

This is exactly what is done in many Canadian offices and factories today. Where large quantities are needed for the afternoon rest pause employers often avail themselves of vacuum tea service from a neighbouring restaurant or, when they are equipped for it, from their factory kitchens.

The tea is made in orthodox fashion from freshly-boiled water poured over a tea bag. After a proper infusion the tea is removed, the vacuum bottle stoppered and service may be made whenever required.

In the Imperial Airways plane "Heracles" a couple of years ago I flew from Paris to London. As a matter of course the steward served tea. As a matter of course I drank it. Not being much of a scientist it had not occurred to me that there was anything unusual about it. I'm fussy about my tea, so I'm forced to the conclusion that you can make

The Late C. W. Reynolds, Aged Seventy-one Years.

LATE C. W. REYNOLDS

Verona, Feb. 15.—A gloom was cast ove this village on Jan. 24th, when the news spread that C. W. Reynolds had passed away at the age of seventy-one from heart failure. He was in his usual good health, having paid a visit to most of his children during the new year and within four days of his death visited his son, Alfred, and spent his last Sunday with his daughter, Mrs. A. Leslie, on the old homestead, Oak Falls.

This is the first bereavement in the family of eleven, the youngest being thirty-two years old. The deceased was a life-long resident of Portland and Hinchinbrook, with the exception of a few years he spent in Saskatchewan, where he made many friends. Two years ago he underwent a serious operations, having his leg amputated, from which he had fully recovered. Rev. M. Gregory preached the funeral sermon in the Free Methodist church the following Sunday, where a large crowd had gathered to pay their last respects to their old friend and neighbor. The remains were placed in the vault to await interment in the spring. He leaves to mourn his loss a widow, three sons and six daughters: Thad., of Verona; Alfred, of Oak Falls; Alexander, of Sask.; Mrs. R. A. Jeffrey, Hartington; Mrs. A. Schultz, Godfrey; Mrs. C. Gome, Moscow; Mrs. J. A. Wagar, Alberta; Mrs. A. Leslie, Oak Falls; Mrs. Joseph Steele, Tichbourne. All were present at his death, except his youngest son, Alexander, who is ill in the west. Besides he leaves forty-four grandchildren and four great grand-children. One most remarkable thing in this family is that there were only two deaths previous to this one, those being two grand-children.

EED OF RAILWAY NORTH OF GANANOQUE

oard of Trade Urged to Apply For Part of Sixty Millions.

Brockville, Feb. 17.—What the riter characterizes as "the absolute eed and necessity for a railway orth of Gananoque to tap the C.N. ," is advocated by J. C. Judd of orton, in an open letter which he ad just addressed to the President nd members of the Gananoque oard of Trade. The letter urges at body to bestir itself and make pplication to the Federal Governent for the expenditure of a porion of the sixty million dollars to be levoted toward railway construction or the building of such a line, which Mr. Judd points out would throw pen to development a country abunlant in water powers and other natral resources. The letter points ut that already many sections of Eastern Ontario are preparing their laims for part of this expenditure. Perth and Lanark have applied for line from Arnprior to Perth, and n to tap the C.N.R. south of Oliver's Ferry, and the county of Hastngs has been equally active.

Can you give me any information about Quaker Church records in Jennoxville Addington and Frontenac Counties. I know nothing about Quaker records in that area. I thought perhaps I might find my Randall line among the Quakers.

I have now been working on my Randall line (David of Ernestown Tp. (Odessa area) 1790. I am getting desperate. 30 years.

Was there any early Presbyterian Churches in Stirling Tp. where is the Presb. Church Headquarters located (record section - similar to synod office in Kingston)

Dear Dr. Burleigh:

I received your letter of 2nd inst.. I am very grateful to you for the data that you sent me about the Bay of Quinte Van Alstine families. I had a number of notes about them but I could not put them in proper order. I know for certain that with out your help I just never would have ever been able to put my own Van Alstine line in order. So thanks again Doctor.

I come into the Van Alstine line in this way ---- my 3rd great grandfather was Isaac Laraway Sr., of Fredericksburgh tp. he was born in 1731, Schoharie, N. Y., the son of Peter Laraway & MARIA VAN ALSTYNE. Maria Van Alstyne was a sister of Lambert Van Alstine of Fredericksburgh

In regards to sending you Van Alstyne data. From your letter I take it that you have as much information as I do. All of my Van Alstyne data was taken from the sources listed below (in Roch. Library)

A History Of Old Kinderhook, N. Y., by Ed. A. Collier, D. D., 1914.
Genealogies Of The First Settlers Of Albany County, N. Y., Pierson.
New York Genealogical & Biographical Record.

In the New York State Library at Albany, they also have -- Lambert Van Alstyne & Some of His Descendants, by Lawrence Van Alstyne of Sharon, Conn., 1897.

I shall be happy to send you any data I have on the Van Alstyne family but perhaps I could help you more if you were to send me some specific questions about them.

My Isaac Laraway Sr., U. E. L., married Annaetje - (Hannah) Van Valkenburgh, in 1756, in Schoharie, N. Y.. I believe the Van Valkenburgh's also came from Kinderhook. So far I just can not line up her line. Doctor Burleigh perhaps this is where you can help me again. Can you send me any data on the Van Valkenburgh's of the Bay of Quinte area. I noticed that the name does not appear in the Report of Ont. Archives, year 1904(U. E. L. losses). If you will do this for me it will be a big help to me.

I am completely stoped on my Randall line. I know that my David Randall of Ernesttown tp. died about 1840. His property in Ernesttown tp etc, and of his son Benjamin Randall of Loughborough tp... My only hope is to find his cemetery record for his birth & death date, and his wife's name and dates. Do you have any cemetery inscriptions that might help me. Do you have any suggestions to make. Of all the lines this one is the most important to me, and the one which has given me the most trouble.

I realize how busy you are at this time of the year. But I shall be looking forward to your reply. I will always be grateful to you.

Sincerely yours,

Howard Randall

Mr. Howard Randall,

Dear sir:

I hasten to reply because of your offer to assist me in some questions which have bothered me for some time. I also wish to express my gratification in being of some use to you with your problems.

I obtained the Van Alstyne tree from a Miss Van Alstyne, curator of the museum in Napanee. She was unable to supply me with the information which I have asked for in my uery No. 2. I hope that you can assist me in this matter.

You are fortunate in having available the New York Genealogical and Biographical Record. This brings to mind your desire for some information on the Van Valkenburghs of Ernesttown and district. Then, when I read over your letter again I suspect that you do not have the ancestors of Hannah, wife of Isaac Larraway. So, if this is so, I have another scoop. The data I obtained from the Hartford Times, Sept. 4, 1943. In any event, if you did not have this information, you are now well supplied. But, from my point, we have the Canadian Van Valkenburghs to identify. I have a woman here claiming descent from this family. Also, a Miss Pearl Van Valkenburgh, who, in 1941, was living in Rochester, was searching for her family. She was descended from Johannes (John) who married Hannah Patterson. Her address at that time was 306 A Morey Hall, University of Rochester. She may still be alive. Or her documents may be deposited with the University. It is worth searching for.

I am sorry that I cannot assist you with your Randall problem. I have copied all the known cemeteries in this region and have not found anything of assistance to you. The Randalls may be buried at Sydenham, or some other cemetery in Loughborough Township

I forgot to mention that there are references to the Vanvalkenburghs in the Van Allen Family tree, which can be found in the New York Gen. & Biog. Record. Portions of it appear in 1950 and 1951. You had better look in it when you are looking for the reply to my uery No. 1.

With regard to my queries, please supply me with whatever you feel will repay me for the information I have supplied. If you have access to the records in Rochester, I shall have other queries from time to time. And I shall be prepared to pay you a reasonable fee for search.

I shall be looking forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

H. C. Burleigh.

Dear Dr Burbeyk:

Glad your most welcome letter of the 18th inst. Once again you have helped me find the Van Valkenburg data. Many many thanks.

Because of the holiday season I was unable to do any research at the library until after New Year's. But then I will do my best for you.

Season's Greetings to you and yours

Sincerely
Howard Randall

Dear Mr. Bousfield:

Thank you so much for the Reynolds data. Some of it I had but I could never have found it again and now it will be treasured as a book. By "some" I mean the 'Quinte' items. I remember going to see one very old lady, nearly 100, Mrs Hamilton and of her residence. on Phillipsburg. Que. as originally Mrs Benjamin. This of course intrigued me at the time but I could not go on with it and she has since died - I've written to Josephine Reynolds of Picton, hoping to get a line on her William P. who at present seems to come out of the void. A Maria Charlotte, or the other way round, looks like the same name of an early school - girls in Quebec, near St. Armand. I am sending you what I copied one year in

The Wm Reynolds of Dorchester near London
may have been the Loyalist from Shoreham, VT (see Hemenway) but he is supposed to have been from vicinity of Hudson N. Y.
He had Rev. John of Pictou and a ~~probably~~ William who was the son
living in Bamford. Ont.
who had
Sarah, William, Nathaniel,
Lucy, Richard, George and Henry.

I know a man in U S.
who is rather keen on Fraser - Grant ancestry.
I could look him up
for you, if you think it might help at all.

I knew about the Valleau and Ansell (Alanson) Randal end.
I finally got their cities from Bennington. VT.

Ottawa. I may have given it to you before, or some of it.

I know the line of the Hampton Robt Randolphs, & Seeley's Bay Randal but wish I knew who Samuel bur. in Lyn, may be, and who Charles Randolph, of Bath, likewise?

I won't forget about the James Randolph of 1800 census, if I get a chance looking at anything likely. If one, one once I care a lot about a Benj. Randall of Troy. N.Y. But do I see the hackles rise at this suggestion?

Faithfully yours

Dear Doctor:

Can you tell me if any one has ever copied the gravestone inscriptions in the cemeteries of Ernestown tp. + Fredericksburg tp.? If so, where can I write to see if any of my U.E. ancestors are listed therein.

Your co-operation will be greatly appreciated.

My Dear Mr. Burleigh:

I received a letter from Mrs. F. Randal living at Clarkson Ont. and she tells me that she thought that you might be willing to help me in my search for my Randall ancestors. If I can help you in any way through the library here or the N.Y. government offices I shall be more than glad to do so. What information I have about my Randall ancestors I have listed seperately.

Perhaps you may know my mother's father who lived in Bath (2) Ont. between the years 1893-1905, his name is Richard-Hall Paynter. My grandfather was father and worked for Everton Ball.

My father Richard Randall Jr.
married his first cousin Ethel Paynter
the daughter of Richard Hall & Sarah-Jane Amelia Randall Paynter. So you see I am related to the Randall family through my mother also.
I have heard that at one time my name was Randolph
but I have lost it has been dropt Randall since 1790. Mrs Livesay said that you are related to my Hughes family, my great grandmother sister Emily Hartley married a James Hughes of Battersea Ont.
I trust that this letter finds you in good health and that you will be kind enough to answer this letter. Please try to tell me if you can

my mother just told me that she went to school in Bath with a Gene Burleigh, is she a relative of yours, please let me know.

Sincerely Yours
